

2017 UCLA Community Program of the Year

The UCLA School of Nursing Song Brown Partnership with Community Health Clinics has been named the UCLA Community Program of the Year Landmark Award recipient for 2017!

The Landmark Award recognizes UCLA Community Programs that have made a significant impact in the communities they serve throughout many years of service. Landmark Award recipients have also worked to foster collaborations between UCLA and the greater Los Angeles community, with the goal of achieving UCLA's tripartite mission of education, research, and public service.

NEWS

MarySue V. Heilemann is inducted as American Academy of Nursing Fellow

Dr. MarySue V. Heilemann was inducted as a Fellow during the American Academy of Nursing Conference earlier this month.

Dr. Heilemann was also highlighted in an article posted on the UCLA Newsroom for her research on digital storytelling, which can encourage patients to seek therapy.

Alina Hui-wen Sato gives TEDx Talk

Alina Hui-wen Sato, MPH, MSN '10 gave a TEDx talk on September 30 entitled “How Grief Enables Me to Endure as a Nurse.”

Alina also has a blog “The Heart of Nursing”, on which she seeks to bring voice to the nursing experience, encourage and support other nurses and explore and restore meaning in caregiving.

Night with Nine Nurses

Earlier this month, Susan Given BS '84 and Dottie Wiley PhD '95 co-hosted a dinner for some of our undergraduate seniors where they discussed the current state of nursing, shared professional advice, and enjoyed a merry evening together.

Do you want to host your own Night with Nine Nurses? It's fun, easy, and rewarding for both the student and the alums.

Contact us to find out more by emailing jadrias@sonnet.ucla.edu.

White Coat Ceremony for APRN students

On October 25, over one hundred first-year Advanced Practice Nursing students were joined by family and friends for their White Coat Ceremony. Karen Grimley, CNE, UCLA Health, our featured keynote speaker made lovely opening remarks.

The cloaking ceremony is a rite of passage - its purpose is to instill a commitment in each recipient to provide compassionate care.
